Bring it with you to the informational meeting on June 3 (4-5 p.m.) in the Little Theater at East Aurora High School.

Arlene Hawks, a life-long educator and former Drama Director at East Aurora High School has been instrumental in introducing tens of thousands of Aurora children to the joy of theater. Mrs. Hawks will be teaching the students a musical theatre experience, which will focus on creative drama, improvisation, vocal, dance, and acting.

Jeff Handley is a highly sought after percussionist in Chicago. He is Principal Percussionist and Education/Outreach Program Director with Chicago Sinfonietta, which includes several recordings and tours to Switzerland and the Canary Islands. He has also performed with Chicago Opera Theater, Ravinia Festival Orchestra, Lyric Opera, Grant Park Symphony, and the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. Mr. Handley was recently heard with Andrea Bocelli, Peter Cetera, Dennis DeYoung, Charlotte Church, and productions of “Les Miserables”, “Spamalot”, “Wicked”, “The Color Purple”, and “Mary Poppins” at the Cadillac Palace Theater. Mr. Handley will be teaching students to play a variety of percussion instruments.
